

A Capitol Day

Arts & More

9:00 AM - 10:00 AM

Begin your day at The Capitol Theatre Center. Peruse the alluring handiwork of artists of the Cumberland Valley and beyond at the Council for the Arts, located on the ground level of the Capitol Theatre Center. Shop an array of local art and art-related items for children at Kaleidoscope. Next experience the grandeur of a 1927 movie theatre as you tour The Capitol Theatre. You might even meet the Theatre's "friendly ghost," Wilford Binder.

10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Beading is hot! And, candy is always in vogue. Group divides into two for tours of Potomac Bead Company and Olympia Candy Kitchen. Express yourself and create with beads. Step into a lovely Victorian candy store and taste delicious homemade candies from 100-year old recipes.

12:00 PM - 2:30 PM

Take a break for a deli lunch at Main Street Deli. Tour the Main Street of Chambersburg. Experience beautiful Tiffany glass windows and learn about the Rose Rent Churches of Chambersburg.

3:00 PM - 4:30 PM

Next stop is the Adams County Winery, a small farm winery at the base of the beautiful South Mountain range. Beginning operations in 1978, the Adams County Winery offers award-winning wines. Tour the 19th century Pennsylvania bank barn where the wine is produced and enjoy delicious samples of such award winning varieties as Three Ships To The Wind and Tears of Gettysburg.

5:00 PM - 6:30 PM

Dinner choices: buffet-style Hoss's Family Steak & Seafood House, fine dining at The Orchards, or ethnic cuisine at Montezuma's Mexican Restaurant.

7:00 PM - 9:30 PM

End the day where you began.... at The Capitol Theatre for a live performance in this majestic and historic treasure.

Franklin County Visitors Bureau - 866-646-8060

